

CORRECTIONAL SERVICES ACT NO. 10 OF 2006

Temporary Correctional Officers Order No. 14 of 2008

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by subsection 68(1) and paragraphs 4(1)(r) and 68(2)(a) of the Correctional Services Act No. 10 of 2006, I, Honourable JOSHUA TAFURA KALSAKAU Minister of Justice and Social Welfare make the following Order.

1 Temporary correctional officer subject to the control and direction of the Commissioner of Police

In addition to the provisions of subsection 16(4) of the Act, a temporary correctional officer appointed under subsection 16(1) of the Act is subject to the control and direction of the Commissioner of Police, while performing his or her function as a temporary correctional officer.

2 Exercise of powers under subsection 16(4) of the Act

In exercising his powers under subsection 16(4) of the Act, the Director and any correctional centre manager must consult with the Commissioner of Police on any matters relating to the performance of the functions of a temporary correctional officer under the Act.

3 Commissioner of Police to ensure all detainees captured and referred back into correctional centre

The Commissioner of Police must ensure that all detainees that have escaped from a correctional centre are captured and referred back into the relevant correctional centre as soon as practicable.

4 Failure to comply with Order

A person commits an act of gross misconduct, if the person fails to comply with the provisions of this Order.

5 Repeal of Order No. 48 of 2006

The Correctional Services (Temporary Release) Regulation Order No. 48 of 2006 is repealed.

6 Duration of this Order

This Order commences on the date on which it is made and ceases to have effect on the date on which it is revoked.

Made at Port Vila this 9th day of April, 2008.

Honourable JOSHUA TAFURA KALSAKAU
Minister of Justice and Social Welfare
