

STATUTORY RULES.

No. 10 of 1925.

Made under the Prisons Ordinance, 1919.
(No. 4 of 1919.)

The Prisons Regulations, 1919 (Statutory Rules No. 13 of 1919) are amended—

(a) by omitting Regulation 23 and substituting in lieu thereof the following:—

“ 23. (1) When proceeding in the course of his duties as Gaoler to any part of the works outside the prison or when leaving the prison on any other occasion not covered by Paragraph (2) of this regulation the Gaoler shall leave the next senior prison officer on duty to attend to the Gaoler's duties with instructions where he is to be found in case his presence is required.

(2) When a Gaoler has duties to perform under any additional Government appointment held by him he shall before leaving the prison in the exercise of those duties leave the prison officer next in seniority to him to attend to his duties as Gaoler during his absence and in addition shall carry out any standing or special instructions which may be given by the Government Secretary to Gaolers in such circumstances.”;

(b) by omitting the word “ Prisons ” in Regulation 131 and substituting the word “ Prisoners ” therefor;

(c) by adding at the end of the first paragraph of Regulation 205 the following new paragraph:—

“ (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation prisoners may be called upon by the Gaoler to work and shall work in cases of emergency in or out of the prison on any day of the year (including Sundays, Christmas Day, Good Friday and other exempted days) and at any time of the day. The Gaoler shall in any such case report the circumstances fully to the Government Secretary.”

Made in Executive Council this twentieth day of July, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.
