TERRITORY OF NEW GUINEA.

NOTICE.

Prisons Ordinance 1923-1938.

WHEREAS by virtue of the provisions of regulation 21 of the National Security (External Territories) Regulations, the powers and functions vested by or under any law in force on the 11th day of February, 1942, in the Territory of New Guinea in the Administrator of the said Territory of New Guinea may be exercised by me, Lieutenant-General Vernon Ashton Hobart Sturdee, General Officer Commanding First Australian Army, and being the General Officer of the Australian Military Forces having the operational command of the Australian Military Forces serving in the Territories of Papua and New Guinea.

Now therefore I in pursuance of the provisions of section 16 of the Prisons Ordinance 1923-1938 of the said Territory of New Guinea do hereby declare the building which has been erected for the purpose of a prison and is situated at Malahang near Lae in the District of Huon⁽¹⁾ in the said Territory of New Guinea, to be a prison under the Prisons Ordinance 1923-1938.

As witness my hand this tenth day of July, 1945.

V. A. H. STURDEE, Lieutenant-General,
General Officer Commanding
First Australian Army.

(1) The District of Huon was not a District under the Administrative Districts Ordinance 1922, but was constituted by military order pursuant to the National Security (Emergency Control) Regulations. These orders ceased to apply to the Territory when those Regulations ceased to apply, and have not been printed in this Annotated Reprint.
