Provided that the question of whether it has so acted shall not be enquired into by any court of law.

(2) The recommendations of a committee of the Governing Council as to the policy to be adopted or other action to be taken in the Council with respect to any matter within the competence of the committee shall be submitted to the Council by means of reports of the committee, and a committee shall also make reports to the Council—

- (a) for the purpose of keeping the Council informed of the conduct by the committee of the business within its competence;
- (b) upon any matter within the competence of the committee in respect of which the High Commissioner requires the committee to make a report; and
- (c) in such other cases as may be specified in directions to the committee under section 28 of this Order.

(b) the committee of the Governing Council by which the power is exercisable or the duty is to be performed may vary or rescind anything previously done in the exercise or performance thereof to the same extent as the High Commissioner or public officer, as the case may be, could have done.

(3) Where, by reason of the revocation or amendment of an order under subsection (1) of this section, a power or duty ceases to be exercisable or is no longer to be performed by a committee of the Governing Council anything done by the committee in the exercise or performance thereof and having effect immediately before the revocation or amendment shall continue to have effect, but without prejudice to the power of the High Commissioner or public officer or any other committee of the Council authorised under this section to exercise the power or perform the duty to rescind or vary the same.

(4) Nothing in this section shall apply to—

(3) A law disallowed by Her Majesty shall be annulled with effect from the date of publication of notice of the disallowance.

(4) Section 38(2) of the Interpretation Act 1889 shall apply to the annulment of any law under this section as it applies to the repeal of an Act of Parliament, save that any enactment amended or repealed by or in pursuance of that law shall have effect as from the date of the annulment as if that law had not been made.
