(5) An extension of time granted under this section does not change the date for payment of tax due as specified in the tax law under which the return is required to be filed.

(6) The Commissioner must provide an applicant under subsection (1) with notice, in writing, of the decision on the application.

(7) The Regulations may provide for an extension of time for a tax agent to file the tax returns of their clients.

PART 9 TAX DECISIONS

34. Self-assessments-For the purposes of this Act:

- (a) a self-assessment taxpayer who has filed a self-assessment return is treated as having made an assessment of the amount of tax payable for the tax period to which the return relates being that amount as set out in the return; and
- (b) a self-assessment return filed by a self-assessment taxpayer is treated as a notice of the assessment served by the Commissioner on the taxpayer on the date that the return was filed.

35. Default assessments-(1) Subject to subsection (4), if a taxpayer has failed to file a tax return as required under a tax law, the Commissioner may make an assessment of the tax payable (including penalty if applicable) by the taxpayer.

(2) The Commissioner must serve a taxpayer assessed under subsection (1) with notice, in writing, of the assessment.

(3) The service of a notice of an assessment under this section does not extend the time for payment of the tax due as determined under the tax law imposing the tax.

(4) This section does not apply to a tax return referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of “tax return” in section 2.

(5) Nothing in this section relieves a taxpayer from being required to file the tax return to which the assessment served under this section relates.

36. Advance assessments - (1) The Commissioner may make an assessment of the tax payable by a taxpayer specified in section 32(1) for a tax period and the tax assessed is payable on the date set out in the notice of assessment served on the taxpayer.

(4) Nothing in this section relieves a taxpayer from being required to file the tax return to which the assessment served under this section relates.

37. Amendment of tax assessments-(1) Subject to this section, the Commissioner may amend a tax assessment by making such alterations or additions to the assessment as the Commissioner considers necessary to ensure that a taxpayer is liable for the correct amount of tax payable in respect of the tax period to which the assessment relates.

(2) A self-assessment taxpayer can apply to the Commissioner within the time specified in subsection (3)(b) for the Commissioner to make an amendment in accordance with subsection (1) to a self-assessment and the Commissioner must serve the taxpayer with notice of the decision on the application.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), if a notice of assessment (referred to as the "original assessment") has been amended under subsection (1), the Commissioner may further amend the original assessment within the later of:

- (a) four years after the Commissioner served notice of the original assessment on the taxpayer; or
- (b) one year after the Commissioner served notice of the amended assessment on the taxpayer.

(6) If subsection (5)(b) applies, the Commissioner is limited to amending the alterations and additions made in the amended assessment to the original assessment.

(7) The making of an amended assessment does not preclude a liability for late payment interest and penalty arising from the date that tax was originally due.

38. Validity of tax assessment or document-(1) Subject to subsection (2), if a notice of a tax assessment or any other document purporting to be made under a tax law is, in substance and effect, in conformity with the law under which it has been made and the person assessed, intended to be assessed, or affected by the document is designated in it according to common understanding:

- (a) the validity of the notice of the tax assessment or other document is not affected by reason that any of the provisions of the tax law under which it has been made have not been complied with; and
- (b) the notice of the tax assessment or other document cannot be quashed or taken to be void or voidable for want of form; and
- (c) the notice of the tax assessment or other document is not affected by reason of any mistake, defect, or omission in the notice.

39. Finality of tax decisions-(1) A taxpayer dissatisfied with a tax decision may challenge the decision only under Part 11.

(2) Except in proceedings under Part 11:

- (a) for a self-assessment, the production of the original self-assessment return or a document signed by the Commissioner purporting to be a certified copy of the return is conclusive evidence of the contents of the return; and
- (b) for any other tax assessment, the production of the original notice of the tax assessment or a document signed by the Commissioner purporting to be a certified copy of a notice of the assessment is conclusive evidence of the making of the assessment and that the amount and particulars of the assessment are correct.

(3) The production of a document signed by the Commissioner purporting to be a copy of or extract from a tax return or tax assessment is, in the Tax Tribunal and any court, sufficient evidence of the original, and the production of the original is not required.

40. Rectification of mistakes-If a notice of a tax assessment served, or document issued, by the Commissioner under a tax law contains a mistake that is apparent from the record and the mistake does not involve a dispute as to the interpretation of the law or facts of the case, the Commissioner may, for the purposes of rectifying the mistake, amend the assessment or document any time before the expiry of four (4) years after service of the notice of assessment or issuing the document.

(7) If there are two (2) or more representatives of a taxpayer, the duties referred to in this section apply jointly and severally to the representatives but may be discharged by any of them.

(8) The amount that a representative is personally liable for under subsection (5) is treated as if the amount were tax payable by the representative as a taxpayer for the purposes of Part 13.

(9) Nothing in this section relieves a taxpayer from performing any duty imposed on the taxpayer under a tax law that the representative of the taxpayer has failed to perform.

(10) A reference in subsections (2)-(6) to “tax” includes any late payment interest and penalty payable in respect of the tax liability.

(3) An objection must be in the approved form and state fully and in detail the grounds upon which the person objecting relies to support the objection.

(4) A person may apply, in writing, to the Commissioner for an extension of time to lodge an objection and the Commissioner may, if satisfied there is reasonable cause, grant an application under this section and must serve notice of the decision on the applicant.

(2) In an application to the Tax Tribunal or appeal to the Supreme Court in relation to an objection decision, the person seeking review of the decision is limited to the grounds stated in the objection to which the objection decision relates unless the Tribunal or Court grants the person leave to add new grounds.

(3) In this section, “tax” does not include penalty.

50. Failure to maintain records penalty-(1) Subject to subsection (2), a taxpayer who fails to keep, retain, or maintain any document as required under a tax law is liable:

(a) if the failure is knowingly or recklessly made, for a failure to maintain records penalty equal to 75% of the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under the tax law for the tax period to which the failure relates; or

(b) in any other case, for a failure to maintain records penalty equal to 20% of the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under the tax law for the tax period to which the failure relates.

(2) If no tax is payable by the taxpayer for the period to which the failure referred to in subsection (1) relates, the failure to maintain records penalty is:

(a) for a company, $300; or

(b) for any other case, $100.

51. Tax short fall penalty-(1) This section applies to a person:

(a) who makes a statement to a tax officer that is false or misleading in a material particular or omits from a statement made to a tax officer any matter or thing without which the statement is false or misleading in a material particular; and

(b) the tax liability of the person or of another person computed on the basis of the statement is less than it would have been if the statement had not been false or misleading (the difference being referred to as the “tax shortfall”).

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a person to whom this section applies is liable:

- (a) if the statement or omission was made knowingly or recklessly, for a tax shortfall penalty equal to 50% of the tax shortfall; or
- (b) in any other case, for a tax shortfall penalty equal to 20% of the tax shortfall.

(3) The amount of a tax shortfall penalty imposed under subsection (2) on a person is increased by:

- (a) 10 percentage points if this is the second application of this section to the person; or
- (b) 25 percentage points if this is the third or a subsequent application of this section to the person.

(4) The amount of a tax shortfall penalty imposed under subsection (2) on a person is reduced by 10 percentage points if the person voluntarily discloses the statement or omission to which the section applies prior to the earlier of:

- (a) discovery by the Commissioner of the tax shortfall; or
- (b) the commencement of an audit of the tax affairs of the person to whom the statement relates.

(5) No tax shortfall penalty is payable under subsection (2) if:

- (a) the person who made the statement did not know and could not reasonably be expected to know that the statement was false or misleading in a material particular; or
- (b) the tax shortfall arose as a result of a taxpayer taking a reasonably arguable position on the application of a tax law to the taxpayer’s circumstances in filing a self-assessment return.

(6) For the purposes of this section, a statement made to a tax officer includes a statement made, in writing or orally:

- (a) in any application, certificate, declaration, notification, tax return, objection, or other document filed or lodged under a tax law; or
- (b) in any information required to be provided under a tax law; or
- (c) in any document provided to a tax officer; or
- (d) in answer to a question asked of a person by a tax officer; or
- (e) to another person with the knowledge or reasonable expectation that the statement would be passed on to a tax officer.

52. General provisions relating to penalty-(1) A liability for penalty is calculated separately with respect to each section in this Division.

(2) A person is not liable for penalty if the person has been convicted of an offence for the same act or omission.

(3) If a penalty has been paid under this Division and the Commissioner commences a prosecution under Division 1 of Part 15 in respect of the same act or omission, the penalty must be dealt with by the Commissioner in accordance with section 66, and no penalty is payable unless the prosecution is withdrawn.

(4) A person is liable for penalty only if the Commissioner:

- (a) makes an assessment of the penalty imposed under this Division; and
- (b) serves notice of the assessment on the person subject to the penalty stating the amount of penalty payable and the due date for payment.

(5) Subsection (4) applies also to penalty imposed under a tax law (other than this Act).

(6) A person liable to pay a penalty may apply in writing to the Commissioner for remission of the penalty payable and such application must include the reasons for the remission.

(7) The Commissioner may, upon application under subsection (6) or on his or her own motion, remit, in whole or in part, any penalty payable by a person except a penalty imposed under section 51.

(8) Nothing in this Division prevents the imposition of penalty under a tax law (other than this Act), although the same act or omission cannot be subject to:

- (a) the imposition of penalty under more than one (1) provision; or
- (b) both the imposition of penalty and prosecution for an offence.

PART 13 COLLECTION AND RECOVERY OF TAX

53. Tax is a debt due to the Government -Tax payable under a tax law by a person is a debt due to the Government and is payable to the Commissioner in the manner and at the place prescribed.

54. Extension of time to pay tax-(1) A taxpayer may apply, in writing, to the Commissioner for an extension of time to pay tax due under a tax law.

(2) If an application has been made under this section, the Commissioner may, upon satisfaction that there is reasonable cause:

- (a) grant the taxpayer an extension of time for payment of the tax due; or
- (b) require the taxpayer to pay the tax due in such instalments as the Commissioner may determine.

(3) The Commissioner must serve the taxpayer with written notice of the decision on an application under subsection (1).

(4) If a taxpayer permitted to pay tax by instalments defaults in the payment of an instalment, the whole balance of the tax outstanding, at the time of default, is immediately payable.

(5) The grant of an extension of time or permission to pay tax due by instalments does not exclude the liability for late payment interest arising from the original date the tax was due for payment.

55. Recovery of unpaid tax-(1) Unpaid tax is recoverable as a debt by the Commissioner suing in his or her official name on behalf of the Government:

- (a) if the amount of unpaid tax is $10,000 or less, in the District Court; or
- (b) in any other case, in the Supreme Court.

(2) In any suit under subsection (1), the production of a certificate signed by the Commissioner stating the name and address of the taxpayer and the amount of tax payable is sufficient evidence of the debt for the Court to give judgment for such amount with full costs of suit against the taxpayer.

(3) The Limitation Act 1975 does not prevent or affect any action or remedy for the recovery of tax.

(4) In any proceedings in the District Court or Supreme Court for recovery of tax, the Commissioner may appear by an officer or employee of the Public Service, and a certificate, in writing, issued by the Commissioner stating that a person appearing is such an officer or employee and that the person appears for the Commissioner is sufficient evidence of the facts stated and the person's authority to appear on behalf of the Commissioner.

(5) If, in any proceedings in the District Court or Supreme Court for recovery of tax, the taxpayer is absent from Samoa or after reasonable enquiry cannot be found, service of a summons may, with leave of a judge, be effected by posting a duplicate or sealed copy thereof in a letter addressed to the taxpayer at his or her present or last known place of abode or business whether in Samoa or elsewhere.

(6) In any proceedings for recovery of tax, costs may be awarded to or against the Commissioner in the same manner as in other cases, but any costs awarded against the Commissioner must be payable out of money appropriated by the Government and not otherwise.

56. Proceedings not affected by vacancy or change in office of Commissioner - No action instituted by the Commissioner for the recovery of tax, and no proceedings on an objection to a tax assessment can be abated by reason of any vacancy in the office of the Commissioner, or treated defectively constituted by reason of any change in the holder of that office, and the action or proceeding can be continued in the ordinary course as if the Commissioner and his or her successors in office were a corporation sole.

57. Government Proceedings Act 1974 not affected -This Act does not limit or affect the operation of the Government Proceedings Act 1974, and all rights and remedies conferred upon the Government by that Act and by this Act co-exist and may be exercised independently of one another, and tax may be recovered accordingly.

58. Recovery of tax paid by a person on behalf of another -A person who in pursuance of a tax law pays withholding tax is entitled to recover the amount so paid from the person receiving the income to which the withholding relates as a debt, or to retain or deduct that amount out of or from any money which is or becomes payable by the person to that other person, and if the withholding tax has been paid by a mortgagee, then, until repaid, it is taken to form part of the money secured by the mortgage, and bears interest at the same rate accordingly.

59. Security-The Commissioner may, if there is reason to believe that a taxpayer will not pay tax when it becomes payable, require a taxpayer, by notice in writing, to give security by bond, deposit, or otherwise, in such amount as the Commissioner thinks fit.

60. Seizure of goods-(1) The Commissioner may seize any goods in respect of which the Commissioner has reasonable grounds to believe that VAGST that is, or will become, payable in respect of the supply of such goods has not been, or will not be, paid.

(2) Any goods seized under this section must be stored in a place approved by the Commissioner for the storage of seized goods.

(3) If goods have been seized under subsection (1), the Commissioner must, as soon as is practicable after the seizure, serve on the owner of the goods or the person who had custody or control of the goods immediately before the seizure, a notice in writing:

- (a) identifying the goods; and
- (b) stating that the goods have been seized under this section and the reason for seizure; and
- (c) setting out the terms of subsections (6), (7), and (8).

(4) The Commissioner is not required to serve a notice under subsection (3) if, after making reasonable enquiries, the Commissioner does not have sufficient information to identify the person on whom the notice should be served.

(5) If subsection (4) applies, the Commissioner may serve a notice under subsection (3) on any person claiming the goods, provided the person has given the Commissioner sufficient information to enable the notice to be served.

(6) The Commissioner may authorise any goods seized under subsection (1) to be delivered to the person on whom a notice under subsection (3) has been served if that person has paid, or makes an arrangement satisfactory to the Commissioner for payment of the VAGST that is, or will become, payable in respect of the supply of the goods.

(7) Except when subsection (6) applies, the Commissioner must detain the goods seized under subsection (1):

- (a) for perishable goods, for such period as the Commissioner considers reasonable having regard to the condition of the goods; or
- (b) in any other case, until the later of -
 - (i) ten days after seizure of the goods; or
 - (ii) ten days after the due date for payment of the VAGST in respect of the supply of the goods.

(8) If the detention period in subsection (7) has expired, the Commissioner may sell the goods by public auction or, in the case of perishable goods, may sell the goods in such manner as the Commissioner determines, and apply the proceeds of sale towards the cost of taking, keeping, and selling the goods seized with any balance to be dealt with under section 66.

(9) If the proceeds of disposal are less than sum of the cost of taking, keeping, and selling the goods seized and VAGST due in respect of the goods, the Commissioner may proceed under this Part to recover the shortfall as if it were tax due.

61. Collection of tax from third party-(1) This section applies if a taxpayer is, or will become liable to pay tax and:

- (a) the tax has not been paid by the due date for payment; or
- (b) the Commissioner has reasonable grounds to believe that the tax will not be paid by the due date for payment.

(2) If this section applies to a taxpayer, the Commissioner may, by service of a notice in writing, require a person (referred to as the “payer”) who:

- (a) owes or may subsequently owe money to the taxpayer; or
- (b) holds or may subsequently hold money, for or on account of, the taxpayer; or
- (c) holds money on account of some other person for payment to the taxpayer; or
- (d) has authority from some other person to pay money to the taxpayer, to pay the amount specified in the notice to the Commissioner, being an amount that does not exceed the amount of the unpaid tax or the amount that the Commissioner believes will not be paid by the taxpayer by the due date.

(3) A notice issued under subsection (2) must specify the due date for payment of the amount owing under the notice, being a date that is not before the date that the amount owed by the payer becomes due to the taxpayer or held on the taxpayer’s behalf, and the payer must pay the amount specified in a notice by the due date.

(4) If a notice served under subsection (2) requires a payer to deduct amounts from a pension, salary, wages, or other remuneration payable at fixed intervals to the taxpayer, the amount required to be deducted by the payer from each payment must not exceed 20% of the amount of each payment of a pension, salary, wages, or other remuneration.

(5) This section applies to a joint account if:

- (a) all the holders of the joint account have unpaid tax liabilities; or
- (b) the taxpayer can withdraw funds from the account (other than a partnership account) without the signature or authorisation of the other account holders.

(6) If a payer served with a notice under subsection (2) is unable to comply with the notice, the payer must notify the Commissioner, in writing, within 14 days after receipt of the notice, setting out the reasons for the payer’s inability to comply.

(7) If a payer has notified the Commissioner under subsection (6), the Commissioner must, after considering the payer’s reasons for non-compliance and by notice in writing, cancel, amend, or affirm the notice issued under subsection (2).

(8) The Commissioner must, by notice in writing to the payer, revoke or amend a notice served under subsection (2) or amended notice served under subsection (6) if the taxpayer has paid the whole or part of the tax due or has made an arrangement satisfactory to the Commissioner for payment of the tax.

(9) A copy of a notice served on a payer under this section must be served on the taxpayer.

(10) A payer making a payment under this section is treated as acting under the authority of the taxpayer and of all other persons concerned and is indemnified in respect of the payment.

(11) A payer who, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with a notice under this section is personally liable for the amount specified in the notice.

(12) The amount that a person is personally liable for under subsection (11) is treated as if it were tax payable by the person as a taxpayer for the purposes of this Part, and sections 47 and 49.

62. Tax a charge on property-(1) Tax that has not been paid by the taxpayer by the due date is a charge upon the real or personal property of the taxpayer except for customary land as may be prohibited by Article 102 of the Constitution.

(2) A charge created by this section is subject to all mortgages, charges, or encumbrances existing when the charge was created but, subject to the provisions of this section, has priority over all other mortgages, charges, or encumbrances.

(3) Despite anything to the contrary in any other Act, if any property subject to the charge created by this section is also subject to a charge created by another Act, the charges rank equally with each other unless by virtue of that other Act the charge created by it would be deferred to the charge created by this section.

(4) The Commissioner may register a charge on any property created by this section under any registration Act to which the property is subject by depositing with the appropriate Registrar a certificate signed by the Commissioner setting out the description of the property charged and the amount payable and, in such case, the Registrar must, without payment of any fee, register the certificate as if it were an instrument registrable under the registration Act.

(5) The registration of a subsection (4) certificate under a registration Act is treated to be actual notice to all persons of the existence and amount of the charge, and the charge has operation and priority accordingly in relation to the property that is subject to the charge and to the registration Act.

(6) If a mortgage registered in respect of the property before the registration of the charge secures any money that is advanced after written notice of the charge or of the registration of the charge has been given to the mortgagee, or to the solicitor for the mortgagee in respect of the mortgage, the charge has priority over the mortgage to the extent of that advance.

(7) When any registered charge has been satisfied, the Commissioner must lodge with the appropriate Registrar a release of the charge and the Registrar must, without payment of any fee, register the release as if it were an instrument registrable under the registration Act.

(8) A charge created by this section that is registered against any property operates to secure any tax secured by any prior unregistered charge and unpaid at the time of registration of the charge, and also to secure any tax secured by any charge coming into existence after the registration of the charge, to the extent that the registered charge operates to secure the total of all amounts for the time being owing by the person under all charges created by this section.

(9) If an amount constitutes by virtue of this section a charge of any property, despite anything to the contrary in any other enactment, the District Court may make such order as it thinks fit, either for the sale of that property or any part of it, or for the appointment of a receiver of the rents, profits, or income of the property, and for the payment of the amount of the charge and the costs of the Commissioner out of the proceeds of the sale or out of the rents, profits, or income.

(10) If property has been sold under an order under subsection (9), despite anything to the contrary in any other enactment, the District Court may, on the application of the purchaser or the Commissioner, make an order vesting the property in the purchaser.

(11) A vesting order under subsection (10) has the same effect as if any person entitled to the property had been free from any disability and had duly executed the proper conveyances, transfers, and assignments of the property for such estate or interest as is specified in the order, and the order is subject to stamp duty accordingly.

(12) The proceeds of disposal or the rents, profits, or income referred to in subsection (9) must be applied by the Commissioner towards the costs of selling or renting the property with any balance to be dealt with under section 66.

(13) If the proceeds of disposal under subsection (9) are less than the sum of the costs of the sale and the tax payable, the Commissioner may proceed under this Part to recover the shortfall.

63. Collection of tax by distraint-(1) The Commissioner or a tax officer authorised in writing by the Commissioner for the purposes of this section may issue an order, in writing, for the recovery of unpaid tax by distress and sale of the personal property of the taxpayer.

- (2) An order issued under subsection (1) must state the following:
- (a) the taxpayer against whose property the order is issued;
 - (b) the amount of the unpaid tax liability;
 - (c) the property against which the distress proceedings are to be executed and the location of the property.
- (3) For the purposes of executing distress under subsection (1), the Commissioner or authorised officer:
- (a) may, at any time, enter any house or premises described in the order authorising the distress proceedings to secure the property that is subject to the proceedings; and
 - (b) may require a police officer to be present while the distress is being executed.
- (4) The property upon which distress is levied must be:
- (a) identified by the attaching of a notice stating “Property Impounded for not Complying with Tax Obligations by Order of the Commissioner of Inland Revenue under Section 63 of the Tax Administration Act”; and
 - (b) kept at the premises where the distress is executed or at any other place that the Commissioner or authorised officer may consider appropriate, at the cost of the taxpayer.
- (5) If the taxpayer does not pay the tax liability described in the order, together with the costs of the distress:
- (a) for perishable goods, within the period that the Commissioner or authorised officer notifies the taxpayer in writing as reasonable having regard to the condition of the goods; or
 - (b) for other personal property, within 10 days after the property has been secured by the Commissioner or authorised officer under subsection (3),
- the property distrained may be sold by public auction or in such other manner as the Commissioner or authorised officer may direct.
- (6) The proceeds of a disposal under subsection (5) must be applied by the Commissioner or authorised officer towards the cost of taking, keeping, and selling the property distrained with any balance to be dealt with under section 66.
- (7) If the proceeds of disposal under subsection (5) are less than the total costs of taking, keeping, and selling the property and the tax payable, the Commissioner may proceed under this Part to recover the shortfall as if it were tax due.

64. Duties of receivers - (1) A receiver must notify the Commissioner, in writing, within 14 days of the earlier of being appointed to the position of receiver or taking possession of an asset in Samoa in the capacity as receiver.

(2) The Commissioner must notify a receiver, in writing, of the amount of tax that is or will become payable by the person whose assets are in the possession or under the control of the receiver and the notice must be served on the receiver within 2 months of the Commissioner being served with a notice under subsection (1).

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a receiver:

(a) must not, without prior approval of the Commissioner, dispose of an asset of the person whose assets are in the possession or under the control of the receiver until a notice has been served on the receiver under subsection (2) or the 2-month period specified in subsection (2) has expired without a notice being served on the receiver under that subsection; and

(b) must set aside, out of the proceeds of sale of an asset, the amount notified by the Commissioner under subsection (2), or a lesser amount as is subsequently agreed to by the Commissioner; and

(c) is personally liable to the extent of the amount set aside for the tax of the person who owned the asset.

(4) Nothing in subsection (4) prevents a receiver from paying the following in priority to the amount notified under subsection (2):

(a) a debt that has priority over the tax referred to in this section despite any provision of this section;

(b) the expenses properly incurred by the receiver in the capacity as such, including the receiver's remuneration.

(5) If 2 or more persons are receivers in respect of a person whose assets are in the possession or control of the receivers, the duties and liabilities under this section apply jointly and severally to the receivers but may be discharged by any of them.

(6) The amount that a receiver is liable to under subsection (3)(c) is treated as if it were tax payable by the receiver as a taxpayer for the purposes of this Part.

65. Temporary closure of business-(1) If a taxpayer fails:

(a) to file a return under section 17 of the Value Added Goods and Services Tax Act, or a monthly summary of tax withheld from salary and wage income under the Income Tax Regulations; or

(b) to pay VAGST or tax withheld from salary and wage income, on or before the due date, the Commissioner or tax officer authorised by the Commissioner in writing for the purposes of this section may notify the taxpayer in writing of the intention to close down part or the whole of the taxpayer's business unless the taxpayer delivers the return or summary, or pays the tax due within a period of 7 days of the date of the notice.

(2) If a taxpayer fails to comply with a notice under subsection (1), the Commissioner or authorised officer may issue an order to close down the business or part of the business of that person for a period not exceeding 14 days.

(3) The Commissioner or authorised officer may, at any time, enter any premises described in an order issued under subsection (2) for the purposes of executing the order and may require a police officer to be present while the order is being executed.

(4) The Commissioner or authorised officer must affix, in a conspicuous place on the front of the premises of the business or part of the business which has been closed under an order issued under subsection (2), a notice stating: "Closed Temporarily for not Complying with Tax Obligations by Order of the Commissioner of Inland Revenue under Section 65 of the Tax Administration Act".

(5) If the return or summary is delivered or tax due is paid within the period of closure, the Commissioner must immediately arrange for removal of the notice referred to in subsection (4).

PART 14 REFUNDS AND RELIEF FROM TAX

66. Refund of tax-(1) Subject to subsection (2), if the tax paid by a taxpayer under a tax law for a tax period exceeds the tax payable by the taxpayer under the tax law for the period, the Commissioner must apply the excess as follows:

- (a) firstly in payment of any other tax owing by the taxpayer under the tax law;
- (b) secondly, in payment of tax owing under any other tax law;
- (c) lastly, any remainder must be refunded to the taxpayer.

(2) A taxpayer may request, by notice in writing to the Commissioner that the whole or a part of the amount specified in subsection (1)(c) is applied against a future tax liability of the taxpayer.

(3) A taxpayer may apply to the Commissioner, in the approved form, for a refund of overpaid tax under a tax law being tax that is not the subject of a dispute as to liability within four (4) years after the date on which the tax was paid.

67. Power of Commissioner in respect of small amounts – Despite anything in any tax law, the Commissioner may refrain from issuing a notice of a tax assessment, or collecting or refunding tax or late payment interest if the balance payable (including after allowance of a tax credit for provisional or withholding tax paid under the Income Tax Act, or an input tax credit under the Value Added Goods and Services Tax Act) does not exceed $5.

68. Relief in cases of serious hardship-(1) If the Commissioner is satisfied that:

- (a) the payment of the full amount of tax owing by a taxpayer will cause serious hardship to the taxpayer; or
- (b) owing to the death of a taxpayer, the payment of the full amount of tax owing by the deceased will cause serious hardship to the dependents of the deceased, the Commissioner may release the taxpayer or the personal representative of a deceased taxpayer wholly or in part from payment of the tax due.

(2) If the Commissioner makes a decision under subsection (1) to release a person or personal representative of a deceased person from tax and the tax has been paid, the Commissioner must refund the amount of tax released under subsection (1).

(3) No amount of tax in excess of $10,000 can be remitted or refunded under this section except with the approval of the Minister.

(4) If a decision of the Commissioner under subsection (1) to release a taxpayer or personal representative of a deceased taxpayer from tax is based on fraudulent or misleading information, the tax liability released is reinstated.
